ABOUT THE SEMINAR

National Seminar on Rural Development in India: Challenges vs Opportunities is an initiative to celebrate and mark the first-ever G20 summit recently hosted by our country. The seminar's theme, "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" or "One Earth, One Family, One Future" is rooted in ancient Sanskrit texts and the goal of sustainable development. This significant event will bring together experts, policymakers, and thought leaders from various fields to engage in a comprehensive discussion about the pressing issues and potential avenues for rural development in India. With a focus on both the challenges hindering progress and the promising opportunities that lie ahead, the seminar aims to foster innovative ideas, promote sustainable practices, and ultimately contribute to the holistic growth of rural India.
